Developing the Bust

Lois writes: "Please help me. I am 22 years old and as yet my bust has not developed. I am five feet, 4½ inches tall and weigh 125 pounds."

Answer—Your weight is correct for your height and age. If your bust measures thirty-three or thirty-four inches it is not too small for a young girl. Rebuilding is one of the best exercises for developing the bust. This is done by using the arms to exert as much pressure as possible on the chest at least twice a week. Exercise the chest about ten minutes night and morning on exercises like the following: Exercise 1. Stand erect with feet apart and arms extended. Push your left hand as far over to the left as possible by pushing with the right arm against your resistance from the left. Reverse the motion, pushing from left to right. Repeat exercise about twenty times. Exercise 2. Stand erect with arms held straight out in front. Feet clenched. Tense your muscles and swing arms so that they cross each other at the elbow or above. Keep the arms straight. Breathe and repeat twenty times.

A Brunette's Colors: Youthful and Mature Types

A Delightful Reader writes: "I have black curly hair, dark brown eyes and a dark skin. What colors are becoming to my type?"

Answer—For a youthful brunette of your type the following colors are becoming: black, deep cream, very dark brown, golden brown, orange-yellow, coral, bright or dark blue, dark bronze-green, dark taupe, red, bright rose, apricot and creamy flesh. Wear a bright touch of contrasting color on dark trousers. You do not suit your age but if you are more than 25 your choice of colors should be modified. If you are black have a collar of deep cream, old rose or gold color. You may wear small touches of red with dark blue clothes. If your skin is clear you may wear old, dull tones of purple. Choose very dark or golden shades of brown, dull yellow and dark green. If you are overweight, select dark colors to melt clinging fabrics or utilize tails that can be perfectly tailored as much depends on the cut of your clothes as on the color when you are seeking becoming costume.

SMOKERS ARE SMART

Smoking is much in evidence this season, since it is a clever way of introducing fluffiness without departing from the line of costume.

CALGARY, Sept. 24.—After visiting the remains of Frank Leslie Hill, a Calgary resident, killed in Sunday's explosion, the coroner's jury adjourned until Wednesday next week when the evidence to establish the death of the victim will be given. Fred Jones, pumpman, will be present.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Almost continuous rain has been in progress for the past week and has led to a great deal of excitement of the long protracted season in Great Britain.

The Tale of the Seafarer

As the ship drove up to the wharf and made fast, I hastened to board her. I at once sought out the captain and to my surprise, I found that he did not know me.

"Who are you, stranger, and what is your business with me?" he asked.

"I am Sinbad, the merchant, who sailed with you," said I. "These ladies married with my name are mine. They lay in the hold of your ship and I have come to claim them."

"You can not be Sinbad," he replied. "I saw Sinbad perish with my own eyes, as did those others (Sailors)."

OCEAN FREIGHT RATES ADVANCE 15 PER CENTUM

Shippers From Canadian To United Kingdom Ports Affected

Canadian Press
MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—Effective immediately, a general advance of 15 per cent. has been made in the freight rates from Canadian ports to the United Kingdom by the steamship lines represented by the Canadian Trans-Atlantic conference, announcement of this having been issued by A. O. Minshall, conference secretary, on behalf of the companies concerned.

The rise in rates is attributed to the increasing cost of fuel and to the necessity for ships having to take coal aboard in this country for the round trip, thus reducing the amount of their available cargo-carrying space.

Canadian Press
The commodities that will be affected by the advance are the following: wheat, flour, barley, oats, and other grain, cattle, hogs and sheep, and other goods.

No change has been made in the freight rates for the export of goods from the United Kingdom to the United States.

May Follow Suit
It is reported that the North Atlantic Lloyd's Kingdom freight conference will be held in London in the near future, and that it will be held in London in the near future, and that it will be held in London in the near future.

Choice of a 90 foot liner southeast of Montreal had been asked of the city commissioners by City Engineer A. W. Hadow because the law is of no further use.

The Preliminaries

Harry Peterson, the heavyweight champion of Sweden scored a technical knock out victory over Sam Jack Adams of St. Louis, in the fourth round of a six round match, semi-final to the Dempsey-Tunney title match last night. The referee stopped the bout after Adams had absorbed a terrific battering. Adams weighed 228, Adams 198.

The fight was the feature of five preliminary six-round matches. Monte Muniz, occasional Nebraska heavyweight, a one-round knockout had made over Hylton Carmichael of Minneapolis, N.D. in the first preliminary to the Dempsey-Tunney title fight.

Muniz, tested by many critics as a potential champion, added Clements to his string of victories in such short order that the great crowd hardly knew what had happened. A successive battering of hooks to the head weakened Clements and he dropped to the floor for the first time from a right clip to the chin delivered at close range. Muniz had the advantage in every respect, weighing 210 pounds to 155 for Clements.

Capitalizing an advantage of power, 44 seconds after the opening bell, Philadelphia negro, cornered off the judges' decision over "Fighting" Clements.

with a right to the body and Tunney landed two light lefts to the head. Tunney missed right to head and caught two lefts to the jaw. Tunney landed left to the jaw. Tunney missed a left and right and Tunney nailed him with a right to the chin. Tunney hooked a left as they clinched. Tunney's left was beginning to close and he appeared to be very tired. Tunney planted a hard right to the jaw, and Dempsey dropped into his chair as the round ended. His nose worked frantically over him. The round ended with Dempsey groggy, as he fell to his corner.

Round Ten

Bob Tewson, Alabama squire in a six round boxing match, defeated weighted 228 and Lawson 195 1-1.
Jack De Mave, the "Fighting Four" of Houston, conceded seven of thirty-five rounds in weight and administered a knock-out to Joe Mosiel, former New York amateur in the third round of another six match.

The Mave, rushing and tearing at Mosiel from the start, soon took the wind out of the hummer of the former champion. Mosiel was so weary and so tired that he was unable to stand in a long, supporting his own weight on his knees as he slipped to the floor.

In a six-round six-rounder, between rival sporting masters of the title, Lou Gehrig, and Tony Loughran, Philadelphia light heavyweight, who helped train Dempsey, won the judges' decision. Tony Loughran, who weighed 174 and Dempsey 171.

Loughran's strong finish to the last two rounds was the verdict after they had battled on close for the first time in history. Loughran was charged at the amateur championship which Joe Mosier won at Murrefield in victory over the Murrefield champion.

Losing his temper, Mark Koenig, Kansas Amateur, threw a swing at him with the other day. (Say Mark, say Mark!) (He wants to that professional effort.)

BILLY EVANS Says

Had a very interesting chat the other day at Boston with Jim Jeffries and Tony Sharkey.
The former heavyweight champion and the new titleholder are doing a stunt in vaudeville and getting away with it.

Like all old timers, both Jeffries and Sharkey regard the new ones as boys about 16 years later. Billy said they could have taken any of the present day blowhairs without much trouble.
Blowhair has fallen right into the snare of the actor. When the two entered the American League ball park at Boston, they received no notice that must have worried them.

Jeffries slipped quietly into his seat. "Hello, Billy," he said at least in tones and as the crowd roared for Jeffries. Billy called him from his seat to share the pleasure.
Of the two, Jeffries was the more fit. He played the whole appearance a little fat because of his peculiar physique. Perhaps the more rugged and

GRAIN PRICES
TAKE SLUMPHopeful Weather Forecast
For Prairie Influences
Trading

Canadian Press
WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—(Weather conditions on the prairie influence grain prices here today, but the forecast for Saskatchewan and Alberta was more hopeful, and prices slumped of ranging 1-2 to 2 cents at the close.

An easier tone prevailed through the day, but rains were expected and the buyers of the past few days are now selling more and taking profits, the offerings going to other local buyers, some spreading trade was reported, but export business continues almost.

The drop in values was entirely due to the weather reports and the fact that further south farmers were predicted for rain, but Saskatchewan was forecast for fairer skies and not so cold.
